Shri M.K. Sinha, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Sandeep Dubey, Govt. Advocate for the State/respondents.

Heard.

This petition was filed for following relief:s:-

> "7.1 That, the departmental enquiry be kindly quashed as being totally illegal and un-constitutional.
>
> 7.2 Any other relief, which the Hon'ble Court deems is to award in the circumstances of the case.
> 7.3 Cost of Petition."

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the departmental enquiry of the petitioner has already been completed and final orders have been passed. He refers to the document Annexure-A/2 filed with an additional application (M.W.P. No. 490/2005) for disposal of the petition on 21.2.2005. The document Annexure-A/2 is dated 11.1.2005 which is the final order pertaining to the departmental enquiry in question. When the departmental enquiry itself has been finalized and final orders have been passed, this petition for the reliefs claimed in Paras 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3 have now become infructuous. By the said application dated 21.2.2005, the petitioner has made several prayers. Those prayers cannot be entertained in the present petition.

However, a liberty is granted to the petitioner to take appropriate steps for the reliefs claimed in the said application and also pertaining to other matters, which may arise in consequence of the final order dated 11.1.2005.

With the aforesaid liberty, the petition is dismissed as infructuous.

Consequently, M.W.P. No. 490/2005 also stands disposed of.
